MISSION
The mission of the Jewish Community Center of Greater Kansas City is to enrich our diverse community by cultivating an inclusive environment built upon Jewish values, heritage and culture. We offer programs of excellence that enhance wellness, meaning and joy from generation to generation.

Building a strong J requires investment.

There are many ways to support the Jewish Community Center, and we are grateful for all contributions. We tremendously value the support from our friends, family and corporate partners to keep our organization strong and vibrant so that we may continue to offer the programs and services that make a difference in the lives of those in our community.

Why Give?

For a century, the Jewish Community Center of Greater Kansas City has inspired community. It is the one place that belongs to everyone. In our facilities:

- Jewish and communal life is strengthened and nurtured through physical, educational, cultural and spiritual programming.
- Jewish identity is enhanced through our Child Development Center, Day Camps, After-School program and unique plays, art exhibits and discussion series.
- The values of compassion and inclusiveness are actualized through our special needs offerings, and respect for the elderly is embraced through the work of the Heritage Center at the J.

To give to the Jewish Community Center, call 913-327-8000, or mail a contribution with our printable gift form (available at jcckc.org/give) to:

Cheers to 100 More

Our 100th year has proven to be a once-in-a-lifetime experience, filled with success and challenge, and ultimately a fitting celebration of our past, present and most importantly, our future.

The April 13th Tragedy dramatically altered the year. But, this event did not define us. How we responded in the days, weeks and months following, is what we'll remember.

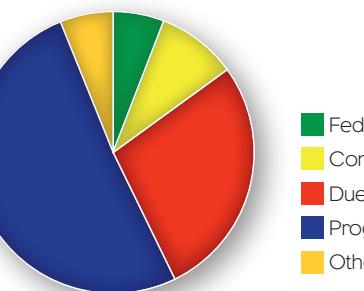

The Staff of the J, along with a variety of individuals in our community, faced that challenge with courage, care and commitment, to react as needed while never ceasing to serve. Staff soon thereafter worked day and night to prepare for an interfaith service at our Campus attended by more than one thousand people and broadcast worldwide. To see young and old, from all religions and ethnicities, singing of love and understanding was a moment in time that many of us will remember for the rest of our lives.

In this centennial year, as always, we strived to be a place of growth and retreat for everyone regardless of religion, race or economic status. Indeed, every day, there are toddlers and preschoolers learning and growing in our Child Development Center, as well as older participants engaged in the hands-on activities of our Heritage Center.
